Calgary - November 3

Edmonton - November 6

Please join Vancouver human rights author Stephen Hammond in a stimulating conversation about the findings of his new book, which gives us fascinating historical information about one human rights fact for every day of the year, from January 1st to December 31st.

"In taking us through a year of human rights, Stephen Hammond leaves us with a powerful mosaic that reveals just how precious and vital human rights are. Steps in the Rights Direction shows us that great things can and have been achieved in the human rights arena, even in the face of daunting obstacles"

Alex Neve - Secretary General, Amnesty International Canada
(as per his foreword in the book)

$15 per book sold will be donated to supporting non-profit organizations (hard cover book costs $29.95)

Event supported by Amnesty International and many other non-profit organizations involved in human rights and multiculturalism.
